I request reference to My Note dy 22-8-22. Mr. Rajkumendra Rau is a very deserving officer and the recommendation made by the Comptr and myself may kindly be sanctioned. I have explained in My note the reasons which support the recommendation. Mr Rajkumendra Rau has proved a very Vigilant "Resourceful" officer and has, by his Care and prompt action, done much to improve our indirect revenue by investment of Surplus Cash balances. I would strongly support the grant of his request as a reward for good work, if not on other grounds urged in support of it.

of the initial salary admissible each year.

This file relates to the case of Mr B.S. Raghavendra Rao. When it was last considered in Council it was thought that he might be given relief by giving some advance increment.

The main question that calls for decision is whether prejudice to the relative seniority is to arise if the date of his increment of 6 months i.e. he may get Rs 325 on 1.1.22 instead of on 1.7.22

Submitted to His Highness.

I beg to invite kind reference to the Dewan's Submission Note dated 17th November 1921, regarding the request of Mr.B.S.Raghavendra Rao, Assistant Commissioner, for confirmation from the 18th January 1920 instead of from the 8th - January 1921. Mr.Raghavendra Rao's confirmation had been put off from 18-1-20 to 8-1-21 as he failed to pass the Civil Part II examination within the period of probation. The recommendation made on that occasion was that Mr.Raghavendra Rao might be confirmed with effect from 1-2-20 so that, while enabling him to earn his increment from an earlier date, the position of officers already confirmed in the grade would not be disturbed. This recommendation was, however, not sanctioned by His Highness.

In August 1922 Mr.Raghavendra Rao submitted a further F&J representation for the reconsideration of his case. Both the Financial Secretary and the Comptroller reported that Mr.B.S Raghavendra Rao had done good work in the Comptroller's office as the Officer in charge of State Loans and of the Bank and Budget Sections and that in recognition of this his request might be favourably considered. The matter was N. considered in Council and it was resolved that the orders already passed could not be reconsidered. The question of recognising his good work was however noted for consideration when a suitable opportunity arose.

H Mr.Raghavendra Rao submitted a further representation to Government in April 1923 that if it was not possible to restore him to his original place, he might at least be confirmed with retrospective effect so far as his pay was - concerned, in order to enable him to draw the increased salary which he would have got if he had been confirmed in due course. The matter was considered in Council and it in connection with the reorganisation of the Civil Service".

According to the allocation statement prepared to give effect to Government Order No.17-61/C.B.98-18-13 dated 3-7-1923, Mr.Raghavendra Rao will get Rs.300 from 1-7-23 and his next increment will fall due on 1-7-1924. The maximum concession that could be given to him without prejudice to officers senior to him is to advance the date of the next increment by six months i.e., he may be given Rs.325 from 1-1-1924 instead of from 1-7-1924. The Members of Council have agreed to this and the Financial Secretary has also expressed his concurrence.

Pages 5-A/6 of office Notes

I beg to recommend that the advancing of the date of the increment from 1-7-1924 to 1-1-1924 may be graciously approved. Mr.Raghavendra Rao has done very good work in the Accounts Department and deserves some encouragement.

Submitted to the Financial Secretary through the Comptroller.

I interviewed the Dewan Sahib this morning, regarding my confirmation with retrospective effect and I was asked by the Dewan Sahib to request you to resubmit the papers for his perusal. The connected papers were sent up to Government with this Office letter No. 229 (Genl. one file) Comptr dated 19th Aug. 1922 with the recommendation of the Comptroller.

F

In this connection, I beg to state that the request already prayed for, may kindly be granted, under the circumstances explained, and in view of my academical qualifications, and the fact that I could not pass the examinations within the preseribed periods due to my retention in another Department, under orders of Government and my subsequent illness. If, as has been done in other similar cases in the Public Works Department, it is not possible to restore my place, I may at least be confirmed, with retrospective effect as far as pay is concerned to enable me to draw the increase in salary, which I should have got, if I had been confirmed in due course.

I beg to submit that the grant of my request is not likely to create any inconvenient precedent as there is no case analogous to mine in the history of Civil Servants in Mysore.
